26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought; and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel:
and the damsel gave it to her mother.

And when his disciples heard they came and took up his body and laid it in a tomb.

The Nurse

*That cap the nurse on duty wears Is costlier than the bonnets gay Worn by the wives of millionaires Regardless of the price they pay.
'Tis something she herself can make,
A bit of linen, trimmed and turned The right to it (for mercy's sake)
Was with three years of training earned.*

*That uniform of spotless white Was costlier than a lady's gown,
'Twas bought with care by day and night
For those with illness stricken down.
The royal robes show royal birth
But every nurse's simple pin
Is emblematic of her worth;
A symbol she has toiled to win.*

*Oh gracious spirit, love imbued,
That can such tender care accord,
Perhaps it is, that gratitude Must always be your best reward.
Now out of gratitude appears This tribute, done in simple verse Unto the dedicated years
Of all who choose to be a nurse.*
